Graduate Retention in Tallahassee-Leon County

New data shows how local colleges and universities help build the region's workforce.

Florida State University (FSU) + Florida A&M University (FAMU)

15,847
degrees awarded, 2024–25 term

2,370
employed full-time in Leon County

15%
graduates employed locally

2,370
employed in Leon County

$57,198
average annualized wage (full-time)

The highest number locally employed since tracking began

Tallahassee State College (TSC)

3,615
degrees awarded, 2024–25 term

684
employed full-time in Leon County

33%
graduates employed locally

1,187
employed in Leon County

$57,566
average annualized wage (full-time)

TSC continues to be an important source of locally employed talent

Lively Technical College

1,180
degrees awarded, 2024–25 term

182
employed full-time in Leon County

30%
graduates employed locally

351
employed in Leon County

$45,103
average annualized wage (full-time)

LTC continues to have strong local employment outcomes

OEV

Source: Florida Department of Education, Florida Education Training and Placement Information Program (FETPIP).